The Research Hot Laboratory was constructed in 1961, as the first hot laboratory in Japan.

In RHL, various PIEs were performed for fuel rods and small samples containing irradiated nuclear materials.

All the PIE operations in RHL had been completed. And the decommissioning works of RHL have been performed since 2003.

The decommissioning plan of RHL
Dismantling procedures of lead cells
Conclusions and future plan